Description of Change

Lika has 3 encoder series with several Ethernet interfaces, such as Profinet, Ethernet/IP, EtherCAT, Powerlink and Modbus-TCP. All 3 series are equipped with an Ethernet module/component which is encountering heavy delivery problems since 2022 and reduced availability to cover approx. only 10% of our demand.

This situation has forced Lika to design-in an alternative component and in the meantime introduce other improvements to develop the next generation Ethernet encoder families.

The main advantages of the new EXM58 and EXO58 series are:

- compact design and axial connectors
- energy harvesting multiturn technology
- improved Ethernet interface performance
